

Petra Pinn

Terrain – The Corner Store Gallery

April 12 - 23

Recent road trips have informed this series of Petra's works. Being attracted to the shapes sunlight creates, her works focus on the variation of colours and forms brought to life by the changing weather.

Her training as a textile designer influences her palette and finding patterns in nature, this also shows in her harmonious compositions.